Boston Gear

Boston Gear recently received ISO 9001:2008 Certification for Quality Management at its facility in Charlotte, North Carolina.

The Certificate of Registration issued to the Charlotte facility states it complies with the requirements of ISO 9001:2008 in the design, manufacture and distribution of speed reducers, open gearing and mechanical clutches for the power transmission industry.

This certification confirms Boston Gear's continued commitment to quality and conformance of requirements.

IDI Website

Inertia Dynamics is pleased to launch the new look for their website www.idicb.com.

The new website provides an overview of Inertia's product offerings for a wide range of industries and applications as well as conversion charts and links to available literature.

Inertia Dynamics is a manufacturer of motion control products and additionally offers the complete Dynacorp line of clutches, brakes and controls.

Lamiflex Couplings

Lamiflex Couplings recently launched their new website www.lamiflexcouplings.com where you can find detailed information about their high-speed disc couplings and engineering solutions for a variety of industries (including oil and gas, power generation, metals and mining).

Lamiflex is Brazil's manufacturer of flexible disc couplings, Elastomeric, Gear Shafts and Transmission products. Their global presence currently includes offices and distribution centers in Argentina, Peru, Chile, Europe and Asia.

Visit www.LamiflexCouplings.com for more information.

Strategic Market Additions

Our customers operate in a diverse group of industries, and in order to support them new market portal websites and literature are now available for the following strategic markets:

Renewable Energy - www.AltraRenewableEnergy.com
Wastewater - www.AltraWasteWater.com

These marketing tools provide customers with an overview of Altra brands and product solutions sorted by application. For additional product details, visitors are directed to the manufacturing brand websites.

Download Waste Water literature (P-7409-C) and Renewable Energy literature at www.AltraLiterature.com.

Casting Website

TB Wood's has just released a new casting website which details information on the wide variety of capabilities their foundry offers.

The foundry provides molding, machining, core making, pattern making and melting services, and it has been pouring iron since 1857.

To access the new site, visit www.tbwoodscastings.com.

Download P-1791-TBW at www.AltraLiterature.com for more information on the TB Wood's foundry.

Altra Videos

Altra has released a new corporate video which showcases the different product platforms and capabilities of the brands in the Altra family.

Visit our YouTube channel www.youtube.com/AltraIndMotion and explore our collection of videos featuring company overviews, product and brand information, special event coverage and more.

Hannover Messe 2013

The brands of Altra Industrial Motion are exhibiting at HANNOVER MESSE in Germany April 8-12. With its clear focus on core technologies and services that enable industrial production, innovation and efficiency, HANNOVER MESSE is valued by companies and organizations around the globe as the world's premier industrial technology showcase.

Altra booth 025 C03 will display the latest product lines and innovations for a wide variety of markets and applications. Special features include new brand videos, product launches and demonstrations.

The success of HANNOVER MESSE 2012 confirms once again that the world's most important technology show is a powerful driver of investment in new technology and automation. Contact us to register for your free ticket at info@altramotion.com.

TB Wood's Coupling Selector

TB Wood's has recently introduced its Sure-Flex® and Dura-Flex® online coupling selector at www.tbwoods.com/coupling-selector.asp. The enhanced online tool allows users to quickly and easily select the right coupling for a specific application.

Users simply enter application data and any special requirements. A list of several recommended couplings, list prices and basic rating & dimensional data is instantly displayed based on the specification criteria provided.

When a specific coupling is selected for further review, additional information is presented including coupling description, assembly drawing, part number, bill of material and a link to downloadable specifications and CAD drawings.

See P-7408-TBW for more information on how to use the new selector program.
